

Elevate Temporary Staff Written Particulars of Employment, Including Code of Conduct

Date of Issue of this Written Statement 23rd June 2020

Commencement Date of Continuous Employment

Your present period of employment is not continuous with any previous period of employment.

Job Title

You are employed as a (see role under 'Details' section in attached Schedule). An outline of your duties will be supplied for each Client assignment.

You are obliged to work when we the Employer require you to do so. We do not guarantee that there will always be a suitable Client assignment to which you can be allocated, and you acknowledge that there may be periods when no work is available for you. However, when there is work available the Company will do its best to allocate work to you and the Company will endeavour to seek relevant assignments for you at all times. You also acknowledge that the hours of work within each assignment may increase or decrease subject to the needs of our Clients. We will provide you with 48 hours' notice of any changes to your working hours. Finally, you agree to provide Elevate Staffing with 7 days' notice to cancel any booked shifts.

Place of Work

Your place of employment will be as specified in the Schedule issued to you prior to each and every assignment. You may, however, be required to work at any location within the United Kingdom to meet the needs of the business. Due to the nature of some assignments you may be required to work across multiple locations within one assignment.

Personal Belongings

Whilst working for Elevate, you are responsible for your personal belongings. Elevate will not be held liable for any theft, loss or damage to personal belongings. It is advised that you should have contents insurance which covers your belongings whilst at your place of work. We cannot always guarantee that there will be a safe place to store your personal items, so please do not bring any valuables to work with you.

Payment

The *hourly/daily fee is as stated in the Schedule attached to these terms of employment and any subsequent Schedules issued to you and which may be varied from assignment to assignment. You will not be paid less than the National Minimum Wage (as amended from time to time). Payment will be made on the last business day of the month. This payment will include all work performed on activities completed from the 1st day of the previous month up to the last day of that month. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have correctly provided us with your current bank details via the Elevate staff portal to ensure payments are made directly to your bank account. It is your responsibility to ensure you have correctly provided Elevate with valid identification documents to ensure we can process your payroll. Without the correct documents you will not be paid in accordance with our payment terms as outlined above. Acceptable forms of identification: valid passport, birth certification, or a National Insurance letter form the HMRC, both a birth certificate and HMRC letter must be accompanied by a piece of valid photo identification.

Elevate Staff Portal: www.staff.elevate-staffing.com

You MUST inform us if your bank details change.

When your passport and/or driver's license expires, it is your responsibility to upload a copy of your new, valid passport and/or driver's license.

Elevate will (as required by law) deduct income tax and national insurance contributions from the pay and will remit such sums to the appropriate authorities.

Please ensure you complete the P46 details section on the Elevate staff portal.

Your working hours and rate of pay are automatically processed in accordance with your confirmation emails, which outline your hours, shift start and end time, rate of pay and your role for each of your assignments. It is your responsibility to inform Elevate, prior to working any additional hours that may be requested by the Client, or, if for a reason beyond your control, you anticipate your working hours will differ from what is outlined in your confirmation email. Your Elevate contact will confirm these additional hours with you prior to working beyond what you are assigned. Without confirmation from Elevate you will not be entitled to additional pay beyond what is outlined in your confirmation email.

You are expected to cover your own cost of travel to and from local assignments. There may be certain occasions when you will be reimbursed your travel expenses, but this will always be agreed with you prior to the booking and confirmed in writing. All expenses must be supported by relevant receipts and must be returned to us within five working days following your assignment. Failure to file your expenses within five working days of the event finishing will result in an administrative fee of GBP 15. Expenses must be logged on the Elevate staff portal and accompanied by the original receipts – no copies or credit card slips will be accepted. You must also send your travel receipts to us within five working days. As stated above, any expenses claimed later than five working days after the end of an event are subject to a GBP 15 administrative fee. Please note that if we do not receive your receipts within 90 days of the day you worked, your expenses cannot be claimed and will not be paid.

Such is the nature of this industry that from time to time we all fall victim to the Client's cancellation of assignments for reasons beyond our control. In these circumstances, and only if the cancellation gave less than 24 hours' notice, we will endeavour to recover pay due to us and will then pay you. Payment in respect of cancellation fees will only be made once the necessary funds have been received from the Client. In the event of a cancellation we will notify you as far in advance as possible.

For the purpose of the Employment Rights Act 1996, sections 13-27, you agree to any deduction of sums including, without limitation, any pension contributions (if any), any overpayments or any loans or advances made to you by the Employer

Hours of Work

Your normal *hours/days of work are as specified in the attached Schedule and may vary for each assignment.

You will be informed of your break entitlement for each campaign, which will be a minimum of 20 minutes if you work more than 6 hours.

Annual Holidays

The Employer's holiday year runs from January to December. Hourly and day rates will include holiday pay calculated at 12.07% which is equivalent to 5.6 weeks statutory holiday entitlement.

Sickness Absence

In the event that you are unable to attend an assignment you are contracted to perform please notify us and your Event Manager immediately, if applicable. Please respect the fact that finding a replacement for you is not an easy task at short notice and we would ask for as much advanced warning as possible. To clarify, normal office hours are Monday to Friday 9:00am-6:00pm. Out of normal office hours you must therefore contact your Booker directly on their mobile number. Please do not leave a message on the office number but ensure you ring these emergency numbers until you are able to speak with someone to inform them of the situation. If you get a recorded message on these mobile numbers, please leave a message. You are not entitled to any payments of sickness or any other absence.

If you are absent from work on account of sickness or injury, you must notify us by telephone or by submitting a self-certification notice to the us by the start of business on the first day of absence. For absences of up to seven days, you must complete a self-certification form on your return to work.

For absences in excess of seven days, you must provide an appropriate medical certificate from your doctor. Failure to do so may result in termination of your employment

You must keep us fully informed throughout your absence, with regard to the likely date of your return to work, and the nature and progress of your illness.

Sickness Pay

Subject to the provisions on notification of absence, production of appropriate medical evidence and compliance with other rules relating to absence, Employees who are absent on account of sickness or injury will receive Statutory Sick Pay (SSP) so long as they satisfy the appropriate statutory eligibility criteria.

Alternative paid leave

Elevate operates under the statutory maternity/paternity and adoption provisions.

Pensions

The Employer will automatically enrol you in our pension scheme under The People's Pension in accordance with the applicable criteria based on job classification and earnings thresholds as posted on our staff web site. If you have any questions about your pension arrangements with us, please contact: Elevate at accounts@elevate-staffing.com. Details of the pension scheme provider can be found here: <https://thepeoplespension.co.uk/>.

Notice of Termination

The minimum period of notice that will normally be given to you to terminate your employment is as follows:

- (a) No notice is applicable if your employment has been for less than four weeks.
- (b) If your employment has been for more than one month but less than two years, notice is one week.
- (c) If your employment has been for two years or more but less than twelve years, notice is one week for each complete year of service.

- (d) If your employment has been for twelve years or more, notice is a maximum of twelve weeks.

Should you wish to terminate your employment you will be required to give one weeks' notice in writing.

Notwithstanding the above, any material breach by you of any term or condition of your employment will result in summary dismissal without notice for gross misconduct.

Confidentiality

Except as permitted by law, you shall not disclose, share or use any information of a commercially sensitive, secret, private or confidential nature relating to the Employer or the Client. Specifically, but without limitation, you shall not post or e-mail any information gained in the course of your employment on any form of social media nor shall you post any photos of any Client events or any Elevate personnel at any Client events. Any direct e-mail communications by you to a Client will be cause for immediate termination unless expressly authorised by Elevate.

You shall immediately notify the Employer should it become aware of the possession, use or knowledge of any such confidential information by any unauthorised person, whether during or after the term of this Agreement and shall provide such assistance as is reasonable to deal with such an event.

Due to the client confidentiality you may be required to sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement for different assignments.

Copyright

You hereby irrevocably, unconditionally, with full title guarantee and by way of assignment of present and future copyright assign absolutely to us the full copyright in the products of your services, including without limitation all image rights, hereunder for the full period of copyright wherever in the world enforceable together with all further rights therein to which you may be entitled and waive any moral rights you may have therein to us. You agree that our clients may use any images of you taken while you were performing your duties as part of your engagement with us and may use such imagery to promote their products and services.

Data Protection Overview

You will for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 (EU General Protection Regulation - GDPR) consent to the processing of all or any personal data (in manual, electronic or any other form) relevant to your engagement by us and/or any agent or third party nominated by us and bound by a duty of confidentiality. This processing is a necessity of your contract of employment with Elevate and therefore requires your consent to this processing as part of your contract of employment. Note – this is a legal basis for the processing of your personal data.

Processing includes but is not limited to obtaining, recording, using and holding data and includes the transfer of data to any country either inside or outside the EEA. You further consent to the following: to receive texts from us on your personal mobile phone at your cost and expense regarding your assignments with us; and to permit GPS personal tracking on your personal cell phone to enable you to check in to an event you are assigned to once you are within 3 miles of the event location.

GDPR and Your Data

We adhere to the key principles of GDPR in the way that we process the personal identifiable information of our staff. The following outlines the information that is processed, what it is used for and how long it is retained. This transparency is important to inform you of the processing that is undertaken and your rights as data subjects in relation to this processing. This processing is undertaken under the contract necessity of the employment with Elevate.

1. Profiling: Staff are required to register on our database. The processing of personal data is required during the registration process, some of this data is mandatory in order to register with other data optional (e.g. your social media handles).
2. Communication: Once staff have registered on the database, Elevate Staffing will send them communications via email and text, in addition to at times calling them directly and providing them with details of job opportunities. Staff are sent these communications based on geographical and employment skill filters. Should staff wish to be removed from the Elevate books and no longer receive job opportunities, they can email hellouk@elevate-staffing.com and request to do so at any time.
3. Video profiling: Staff are required to film and upload a short video bio at point of registration. At times, we may request that staff submit a specific video profile that would be assignment application specific. These videos are stored on your secure CRM, internal Elevate office server and shared with clients via a public third-party platform (YouTube).
4. Personal device usage: We will send staff electronic training material or ask them to complete training and or reporting on their personal electronic devices. There is a potential that we will share personal staff information within these documents such as colleague names, telephone numbers and emails (purely as a necessity for the contract assignment).

You can view further detail on our privacy policy here.

Your Rights

You have the right to access any personal information that Organisation processes about you and to request information about:

- What personal data we hold about you
- The purposes of the processing
- The categories of personal data concerned
- The recipients to whom the personal data has/will be disclosed
- How long we intend to store your personal data for
- If we did not collect the data directly from you, information about the source

If you believe that we hold any incomplete or inaccurate data about you, you have the right to ask us to correct and/or complete the information and we will strive to do so as quickly as possible; unless there is a valid reason for not doing so, at which point you will be notified.

You also have the right to request erasure of your personal data or to restrict processing (where applicable) in accordance with the data protection laws; as well as to object to any direct marketing from us. Where applicable, you have the right to data portability of your information and the right to be informed about any automated decision-making we may use.

If we receive a request from you to exercise any of the above rights, we may ask you to verify your identity before acting on the request; this is to ensure that your data is protected and kept secure.

- If the warning is a verbal one a note that such warning has been given will be placed within the employee's records.

(2) Final Warning

- This will be confirmed to the employee in writing
- This warning will state that if the employee commits a further offence of misconduct their employment may be terminated

(3) Dismissal

- Dismissal will be notified to the employee in writing together with the reason why the Company has imposed that sanction
- Notwithstanding the above, depending on the severity of the offence and the circumstances, staff may be summarily dismissed for gross misconduct without warning.

This code of conduct is designed to support our employees and ensure the highest standards are delivered across the company. It is impossible to outline every scenario, but we hope this code provides a solid foundation and guide to satisfactory employee conduct.

All employees are to comply and follow the code of conduct and be committed to supporting the wider Elevate team in following the code as well.

The code of conduct is vast, and we understand that you may have questions from time to time and we are committed to answering those questions. Please contact your relevant contact at HQ with any queries you may have.

This code of conduct may, at our discretion, be amended from time to time, in which case you will be provided with the updated version in your confirmation emails.

Thank you for choosing to work for Elevate and committing to upholding our values and code of conduct on each and every campaign.
